ABOUT PATO

Pato Nuño is a guitar player and a versatile composer and improviser born in Chile and citizen of Croatia, renowned for his variety of works and the use of a wide range of genres including jazz, blues, rock, electronica and classical music.

Pato's compositions showcase a remarkable ability to evoke emotions and tell stories through the music, reflecting a deep understanding of various musical traditions and showing a great technical artistry with the guitar. Pato's music is primarily rooted in contemporary jazz with modern influences, where the electric guitar takes center stage, accompanied by improvisation as a key sound atmospheres, resulting in a unique and expressive sound of modern jazz.

With a career spanning nearly 15 years, Pato Nuño has also established himself as a prolific recording artist and a music mentor.

He has released 8 albums, both as a solo artist and collaborator. Beyond his work as a performer, Pato has shared his knowledge and passion for music through teaching at various academies, colleges, and universities. His experiences performing in Croatia, Chile, Slovenia, New Zealand, and Serbia have shaped his artistry, making him a truly global musician.
